Commodore's Quarters

WRITTEN BY STEELE YOUNG

From the cover of the Sunday edition of San Diego Union Tribune, to the LA Times, our message seems to be getting out.

Thank you for everyone who responded to our Call to action. I'm so incredibly impressed.

The current status is very positive. My message to you today is that SDMBBSC stands in a position of strength to get what we need to remain a healthy community-contributing organization in San Diego. There are many levels, and moving parts to this story, and our strategy, but we can proceed with high confidence and faith that the eventual outcome will include uninterrupted continuation of business, for the San Diego Mission

Bay Boat & Ski Club.
Great Job Everyone!

CLUB NEWS

FROM MEMBER VOLUNTEERS ANNA ALVAREZ AND LINDSAY DEFAZIO:

Dear Boat Club Family,

We want to thank everyone for making the Club's first ever Comedy Night a massive success!

When the idea of bringing comedians to the Boat Club was first mentioned, we thought we would give it a try and see how it goes, expecting a small turnout while experimenting with a new entertainment option that we were frankly not sure would be a recurring event. However, once the event started taking shape, we started to realize that this could get much bigger than initially expected, and that neither of us had ever chaired major event before! And it sure did--thanks to this fantastic community!

We want to specifically thank Maria Wood for her work on the beautiful and creative centerpieces and table decor; Jonathan Mortensen, Keg Man, and Dave Walker for the heavy lifting involved in turning Chandler Hall into a comedy club for one night; and of course, our Commodore Steele Young who just seems to magically do things to make events successful without being asked--things we never would think of.

Big, big kudos to our kitchen and bar staff for carefully working to plan a menu and drink specials that were appropriate for a sit down dinner show. Their careful attention to detail in this regard is much appreciated as well as their tireless efforts to provide excellent service on the night of the event. Well done!

We want to also recognize our performers Camille Waters, Short Jake, Walter Ford, Kimble Hume, and Mall Hall for the extraordinarily funny show.

Finally, there are several other members who provided sage advice, moral support, and feedback during the planning process who we really appreciate--we could not have done this without you.

See you at the next Comedy Night!

Anna and Lindsay

SDSU 2nd Place

Hello San Diego Boat and Ski Club,

Thank you once again for supporting the San Diego State University Concrete Canoe team. As you know, I'm happy to report we got second place against thirteen other universities in our regional competition at this year's Pacific Southwest Symposium! This would now be the second year in a row SDSU has placed second. Not only that, but this year is the best we have ever done at San Diego State University, only losing to first by 7 points! CLUB NEWS

I am pleased to say this is the best our university has done in ten years. Without your help, we could never have accomplished this feat. Your support is invaluable to us and it made this year's canoe possible. Next year's team is making plans to hopefully take home the gold!

I've attached pictures of this year's team and competition; if there is anything you want to know, please feel free to reach out.

Solo Penaflor

It's with much sadness that I report Solo Penaflor, the 6 year old Labradoodle passed away Saturday, April 29th. His 4th bout of pneumonia in a year was just too much to handle. Solo was the official mascot of the Blast SC, WestCoast FC, University City HS Varsity soccer teams, and the Mission Bay Masters Golf tournament. As with all the BC dogs, Solo LOVED going to the Boat Club, retrieving tennis balls, and getting a scrap of ribeye steak when he could. He was loyal and loving. Solo will truly be missed.

This program has been lead by Ron George with the support of his wife Diane. This year is a milestone celebration and we need to recognize it as such..

We would like to honor them by celebrating with a kickoff day at one of the Concerts on the Lawn. A big birthday party sounds about right doesn't it? If you love to organize and throw parties please let anyone on the Board know so we can make this a reality.
