SANDAG Bike Anywhere Day

ANYWHERE DAY BIKE

Volunteers: Renee Donner, Ira and Janie Lindenfeld, Corey Mitskevich, Paula Goleta and Greg Shaw

May was National Bike Month! It's a celebration of biking for transportation, recreation, and leisure. The Boat Club was excited to host the reinvented Bike Anywhere Day (formerly known as Bike to Work Day).

Bicyclists were encouraged to pedal to one of the many pit stops to grab your free t-shirt. This is the first year the Boat Club signed up to be one of the stops and it was a successful one with nearly 200 bicyclists stopping by. Volunteers handed out refreshments and asked participants to pledge to go by bike to school, work, the beach, or anywhere you like.

Mike and Heather Schulte, Lefty and Joyce Churchill were in Australia, New Zealand and cruising the Pacific for about 5 weeks.

SATELLITE SKY

Aussie sibling rockers Satellite Sky pound out pure unadulterated rock. Kim Kicks is absolutely captivating on the drums and brother Pete's edgy guitar is the perfect counterpart to his memorable, hook laden songwriting style. Their infectious power pop-punk manages to be both original and reminiscent of both the best punk (The Clash, etc.) and the melodic sensibilities, energy, and personality of eighties pop.
